

free family festival

Presents

Dublin mela 2012

experience India in Dublin

www.dublinmela.ie

Sports

Come along and join the sports section from 12 PM onwards - "Gilli Danda, Kabbadi, Kho-Kho.....Ever heard of these games? At the Mela, you can also join us and play these and many more traditional Indian games! New games, great memories and loads of fun for Kids and adults alike!"

Dublin Mela 2012

World Cultural Stage

Scintillating Performances will kick start from 1:00 PM onwards

1:00 – 1:30 Get your feet tapping with Bolly Zumba fitness Dance, The floor is yours!

1:30 – 2:00 – Mythological character landing in Helicopter from India

2:00 – 3:15 – Dances(Bhangra, Classical and more) , Drama, Singing

3:15 – 4:00 – Break

4:00 – 5:15 – Unmissable, eye catching, spirit soaring dance performances in succession

5:15 – 5:30 Thanks giving

* Schedule and order is susceptible to changes based on the weather and other factors. Please contact the information desk.

Indian Cuisine – Food 😊

Mela brings to you , the authentic Indian cuisine. Taste the richness, tingle your taste buds and dwell in the subtle aroma of Indian spices and flavor's

@ the food section

Kids Works shops

We will have workshops to entertain the kids and also showcase cultural aspects of India from 1:00 PM.

Following are the workshops

1. Henna tattoos are a fun and safe way to explore body art without pain or commitment.
2. Face Painting with an Indian touch.
3. Kite Making Workshop – Make the kite and take it home
4. Write your name in one of the Indian Languages and take it home as a souvenir
5. Colour an exciting indian design and give it your personal touch!